

A large, detailed stone sculpture of the Virgin Mary holding the Christ Child. The Virgin Mary is seated, wearing a long, flowing robe with intricate folds. She has a serene expression and is looking down at the Christ Child. The Christ Child is lying in her arms, his head tilted back, and his body is partially draped. The sculpture is set against a dark, textured background, possibly a wall or a cave. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of the figures.
